Greg Dastillung (Music Director) has been a piano player since he was 6, and a music director since he was 13, Greg has performed locally, regionally, and internationally. From 1986 to 1996 he was Resident Music Director for the national award-winning Cincinnati Young Peoples' Theatre. From 1990 to 2001 he was a Director, Producer, and Resident Music Director at The Showboat Majestic, the nation's only floating National Historic Landmark, and taught Musical Theatre at Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park. He composed music and performed with the sketch comedy troupe "Monkeytime," which was heard internationally on Armed Forces Radio. He performs as Sammy Hammond with the show band Hot Wax. After a seven year break from theatre to teach elementary school music, Greg is happy to be working in this historic facility. When not busy performing, arranging, and composing, he enjoys the affection of the lovely Leslie. Their blended family includes seven children and three smelly dogs.

Justin Barisonek (Assistant Set Designer) is a freelance Scenic Designer and theatrical technician based in Cincinnati. His designs include musical theatre, drama, and opera productions. He maintains a reputation for high quality, inventive designs and dedication to artistic collaboration. Justin began his professional career in St. Louis and quickly became an in-demand artist, designing with several local professional theatres including (Mostly) Harmless Theatre, New Line Theatre, HotCity Theatre, and Historyonics Theatre Company. He proudly served as Resident Lighting Designer with Historyonics for three years. As a founding member of the International Theatre Collective, he has worked with fellow ensemble members to produce the original work "Saltwater;" he then toured with the company to Montana, St. Louis, Seattle and British Columbia. In February 2005, Justin served as a guest artist for Bemidji State University in Minnesota where he was Scenic and Lighting Designer for their production of "Tartuffe." Justin completed his MFA in Scenic Design from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music in 2010. His designs for CCM have been recognized with multiple Cincinnati Acclaim Awards, a Peggy Ezekiel Award for Outstanding Achievement (USITT/Ohio Valley), and a Cincinnati Entertainment Award nomination.

Amanda M. Egloff (Technical Director/Props Master) graduated from the University of Cincinnati with her B.F.A. in Technical Design and Production in 2003. Some of her favorite Technical Direction credits there included Pelleas et Melisande, The Marriage of Figaro, and Stop Kiss. In the past she has worked at Williamstown Theater Festival, most notably during the 2001 season for which they received a Tony for Best Regional Theatre. Locally, Amanda has taught at Clark State three times, designing the 2006 production of Rumors, and La Comedia Dinner Theatre as props master on their 2008 production of Beauty and the Beast. This marks Amanda's fifth season at Town Hall Theatre. Some of her favorite productions include The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, Bridge to Terabithia, Madeline's Christmas, A Year With Frog and Toad, and If You Give A Mouse A Cookie (her very first set design at THT!). This season is dedicated to her wonderful boys Connor and Dylan, and husband Ben. I love you guys so much!

Tammy Honesty (Set Designer) Tammy is a freelance scenic designer based in Cincinnati. Her designs have been on stages from New York City (Off-Off-Broadway) to the Human Race Theatre Company in Dayton to the University of Illinois. She enjoys designing theatre for young audiences, recently designing The Garden of Rikki Tikki Tavi, her eighth show for Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park's Educational Touring Company. Current projects include designing the set for Picnic for the College Conservatory of Music at University of Cincinnati and Rounding Third for The Human Race Theatre Company. In addition to designing scenery, Tammy has been a scenic artist for River City Scenic and 3dx Scenic Studios where she was a project manager. Examples of her painting talents have been cruising the world on Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines, Princess Cruises, and Norwegian Cruise Lines, and on display at various corporate theatre events including the Longaberger conventions. Currently, she is a part-time visiting assistant professor of theater at Denison University and a member of USA Local 829 as a scenic designer.

Anita Jackson (Production Stage Manager) graduated from Ohio University with her B.F.A. in Stage Management. Some of her stage managing credits include working with the Ohio Valley Summer Theatre, Westport Country Playhouse, and Templeton Blackburn Alumni Memorial Auditorium. Although she is very musically talented she has found her true calling from working backstage. She loves to be involved in all aspects of the theatre, but most of all she enjoys managing the incredibly enthusiastic kids in rehearsals and on backstage crew. She'd like to especially thank all of her little helpers for their devotion to running crew backstage; it's harder than it looks. Anita is very glad to be returning to THT for her 4th season and hopes to enjoy many more.

Briley Lambert (Costume Designer) recently completed 2 years at Wright State University studying Costume Design. She designed costumes for The Tempest and the dance piece ...transcending tides... She was also the assistant costume designer for Cat on a Hot Tin Roof. Briley holds a B.S.E. in Chemical Engineering from Calvin College. As a member of the Calvin Theatre Company, she sewed costumes and worked on the wardrobe crew for many shows including A Funny Thing...Forum, Return of the Prodigal, and As It Is In Heaven. For the past year, she has served as the Director of Dramatic Support for Patterson Park Church. Briley is excited to start her 1st season as Costumer for THT! She'd like to thank her Mom and Dad for their love and support.
